Agent will assist Owner to fulfill obligations of Owner under any vendor agreements related to the Property (excluding monetary payment of such services).

4. BANK ACCOUNT

a. OPERATING TRUST ACCOUNT. Agent shall establish a single trust account for operating and reserve funds for the Property ("Operating Trust Account"). Such Operating Trust Account shall be maintained by Agent on behalf of Owner in a bank or other institution whose deposits are insured by the federal government as Agent may, from time to time, determine. Interest, if any, on the Operating Trust Account, shall accrue to the benefit of Owner; provided, that any interest premiums or other credit or amounts that are based on Agent's relationship with the bank or Agent's overall volume of business with the bank shall be Agent's sole property and shall accrue to the benefit of Agent. Account"). Agent is authorized to collect and hold security deposits and to cause such deposits to be deposited in the Security Deposit Trust Account

5. FORCE MAJEURE

Neither Agent nor Owner shall be liable or responsible to the other, nor be deemed to have defaulted under or breached this Agreement, for any failure or delay in fulfilling or performing any term of this Agreement (other than any payment obligations) when and to the extent such failure or delay is caused by or results from acts beyond the impacted party's reasonable control, including, without limitation: acts of God; flood; fire; earthquake; explosion; pandemics; epidemics; governmental actions; war; invasion or hostilities (whether war is declared or not); terrorist threats or acts; riot or other civil unrest; national or regional emergency; labor strikes, lockouts, or other industrial disturbances; passage of law or any action taken by a governmental or public authority; or national or regional shortage of adequate power, telecommunications, transportation, or supplies. The affected party shall give prompt written notice to the other party of such event and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to resume performance as soon as reasonably practical. For the avoidance of doubt, if Agent's performance is delayed or prevented due to Owner's failure to provide timely and accurate information, such failure shall be deemed a Force Majeure event, and all related performance deadlines shall be extended by an amount equal to the duration of the Force Majeure delay.

6. INDEMNIFICATION

a. SURVIVAL. The indemnification and hold harmless obligations of the Parties in this Section 6 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

b. PROCEDURE. A Party seeking indemnification under this Section 6 shall give the Party from whom it seeks indemnification prompt written notice of a claim, shall permit the other Party to conduct the defense and settlement of the claim, and shall provide, at the indemnifying Party's sole expense, reasonable cooperation in the defense of the claim; provided that the indemnified Party shall have the right to participate in the defense of the claim with counsel of its own choosing and at its own expense. An indemnitor may not settle any claim against the indemnitee on terms that (i) provide for a criminal sanction or fine against the indemnitee, (ii) admit to criminal liability on the part of the indemnitee, or (iii) provide for injunctive relief against the indemnitee. The indemnitor waives for itself and for its insurance carriers any rights of subrogation which the indemnitor's insurance carriers may have against the indemnitees.

c. INDEMNIFICATION BY OWNER. To the fullest extent permitted by law, Owner shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Agent and its members, managers, officers, agents, affiliates, subsidiaries, employees, representatives, successors and assigns from any and all claims, suits, actions, proceedings, losses, damages, costs, expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), and liabilities (collectively, "Claims") arising from or related in any way, directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, out of the management, leasing, maintenance or operation of the Property (and each of them), or the performance by Agent of its responsibilities under this Agreement, or acting under the express or implied direction of Owner, Agent's status as the property manager for the Property, owner's violation of any applicable federal, state, or local law or regulations, or Owner's breach of this Agreement. For avoidance of the doubt, the term "Claims" as it relates to Owner's indemnification obligation under this subsection expressly includes claims related to or arising out of the environmental condition of any of the Property. Owner shall not have the authority to settle any Claim that is the subject of the indemnification obligation under this subsection without first obtaining Agent's written approval. Owner shall keep Agent regularly apprised of the status of all Claims and related proceedings. Owner will immediately assume the duty to defend, with counsel selected by Owner (and approved by Agent, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld), any Claim subject to Owner's indemnification obligation.

d. INDEMNIFICATION BY AGENT. Agent shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Owner and its members, managers, officers, agents, successors and assigns from any and all Claims arising out of or related to activities by the Agent constituting an Improper Action. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Improper Action" shall mean (i) fraud, (ii) gross negligence (gross negligence being defined for purposes of this Agreement as any extreme deviation, whether by action or inaction, by a Party from the standard of care for persons or entities providing services or performing obligations similar to those to be provided or performed by such Party hereunder in undertakings similar to the Property), (iii) willful misconduct, or (iv) an intentional material breach of an express provision of this Agreement.

Owner's insurance shall be primary to any insurance procured by Agent, and such insurance purchased by Agent shall not contribute in any way. Such insurance shall include a waiver of subrogation endorsement, waiving any rights of recovery against agent and Owner will secure endorsements to this effect from all insurers of such policies and provide them with a certificate of insurance.

vi. All insurance shall be written with insurance companies with an A.M. Best's rating of a A+ or higher, licensed to do business in the State of Washington. Owner agrees to provide Agent with certificates evidencing such insurance, including the additional insured endorsement, or with duplicate copies of such policies, including all endorsements, prior to the execution of this Agreement and upon Agent's request. If Owner fails to do so, Agent may upon prior written notice, but shall not be obligated to, purchase the insurance described in this Agreement and charge the cost thereof to the Property.

b. AGENT'S INSURANCE. Agent shall, at the expense of Agent, maintain in full force and effect insurance policies with respect to Agent's duties hereunder satisfactory to Owner issued by insurance companies with an A.M. Certificates of all insurance required under this subsection (b) shall be issued by the insurer or its authorized agent evidencing continuation of the coverages required herein prior to the execution of this Agreement. Agent shall provide Owner notice at least thirty (30) days prior to the expiration date of the then effective insurance policy or cancellation.

c. WAIVER OF SUBROGATION. Neither Owner nor Agent shall be liable by way of subrogation or otherwise to the insurance company insuring the other Party for any loss or damage to any building, structure or tangible personal property of the other occurring on or about any of the Property, even though such loss or damage might have been occasioned by the negligence of such Party, its agents or employees, provided that such loss or damage is covered by insurance benefiting the party suffering such loss or damage or would be covered under an all risk (special form) insurance policy. Each Party shall cause each property insurance policy obtained by it to contain the waiver of subrogation clause. Nothing herein shall be construed to relieve either Party from fulfilling its obligations under this Agreement to the other Party.

d. ENVIRONMENTAL MATTERS. Without limiting any other provisions of this Agreement, to the fullest extent permitted by law, Owner agrees to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless Agent and its affiliates, subsidiaries, partners, managers, members, officers, employees, representatives and agents, or any one of them, for, from and against any and all actions, administrative proceedings, causes of action, charges, claims, commissions, costs, damages, decrees, demands, duties, expenses, fees, fines, judgments, liabilities, losses, obligations, orders, penalties, recourses, remedies, responsibilities, rights, suits and undertakings of every nature and kind whatsoever, including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees, court costs and other litigation expenses and costs arising directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, from the presence of Hazardous Substances (as defined below) on, under or about the Property, except to the extent that the Hazardous Substances are present as a result of the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Agent. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the indemnification provided by this paragraph specifically shall cover costs incurred in connection with any investigation of site conditions or any remediation, removal or restoration work required by any federal, state or local governmental agency because of the presence of Hazardous Substances in, on, under or about the Property, except to the extent that the Hazardous Substances are present as a result of the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Agent. For purposes of this section, "Hazardous Substances" shall mean (i) all substances defined as hazardous materials, hazardous wastes, hazardous substances, or extremely hazardous waste under any federal, state, or local law or regulation, and (ii) mold, mold contamination, mold spores, bacterial contaminants and/or any and all substances or materials related thereto. The indemnification obligation of Owner in this Section 7.d shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement.

Without limiting the indemnifications set forth in this Section, Owner and Agent further agree that Owner is solely responsible for any and all conditions at the Property that could give rise to bodily injury or property damage claims stemming from the presence of mold, mold contamination, mold spores, bacterial contaminants and/or any and all substances or materials related thereto.

8. RECORDS

a. Owner shall promptly furnish Agent with records related to the Property to enable Agent's management thereof, including, but not limited to Owner's formation documents, Property acquisition documents, loan documents, leases (including amendments and pertinent correspondence), status of rental and other payments, list of security deposits and copies of existing service contracts, and any rules or restrictions related to the use of the Property.

b. Owner and its representatives shall have the right to examine and copy, at Owner's sole expense, the books and records at Agent's office at a mutually agreed upon time with ten (10) days' prior written Notice, any time during regular business hours. In the event Owner's examination requires more than five hours of assistance from Agent's staff, employees, or consultants, Agent may charge Owner a reasonable administrative fee for the staff member, employee, or consultant.

9. COSTS OF LITIGATION

Subject to Agent's indemnification obligations herein, Owner shall pay for all costs and expenses of litigation including Agent's reasonable consulting fees to support litigation efforts, attorneys' fees, filing fees, expert and witness fees, and court costs. In all instances where Owner is responsible for the expenses of litigation, Owner will have the right to either select the counsel of its choice to handle such litigation or to approve the counsel in advance of their retention. Agent agrees to cooperate with Owner in connection with any such litigation.

10. TERMINATION

a. If the Property is damaged such that the Property becomes untenantable and/or if a taking by condemnation or similar proceeding of a substantial portion of the Property occurs, this Agreement may be terminated by Owner on thirty (30) days prior written notice to Agent.

b. If a receiver, liquidator, or trustee of either Party shall be appointed by court order, or if a petition to reorganize shall be filed against a Party under any bankruptcy, reorganization, or insolvency laws, or if an assignment for the benefit of creditors is made by a Party, then the other Party may terminate this Agreement on written Notice to the other Party. If Owner should lose the right to possession of the Property for any reason other than addressed in the immediately preceding sentence, then it may terminate this Agreement by written Notice to the other Party.

c. If either Owner or Agent breaches any of its respective material obligations hereunder, and if such breach remains uncured for a period of thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice by such Party, the non-breaching party may terminate this Agreement by providing written notice to the breaching Party.

d. Notwithstanding Section 10(c) above, upon ten (10) business days' written notice, Owner may terminate this Agreement if any of the following defaults occur: (i) if Agent or any of its directors, officers or employees engages in any Improper Act; and (ii) if Agent fails to pay any amount payable to Owner under this Agreement, upon Owner providing Agent at least ten (10) days prior written Notice of such unfulfilled payment obligation.

e. Within thirty (30) days after the termination of this Agreement, Agent shall deliver to Owner all books and records in Agent's possession related to the Property, including but not limited to, accounting records, contracts, leases, and current files relating to the Property.

f. Owner shall inform Agent of its intention to sell the Property a minimum of sixty (60) days prior to listing the Property with a broker other than Agent. If Owner executes a listing agreement with a broker for the sale of the Property, Agent shall reasonably cooperate with such broker to effect the sale of the Property. Agent will permit the broker to exhibit the listed Property during business hours.

g. In the event Owner terminates the Agreement prior to the end of the Term for a reason other than one set forth in this Section 10 (an "Early Termination"), Agent shall be entitled to an early termination fee ("Early Termination Fee"). The Early Termination Fee shall be calculated as follows: the average monthly Base Fees paid to Agent during the 12 months preceding the Early Termination multiplied by the number of months remaining in the Term. The non-renewal of this Agreement shall not entitle Agent to an Early Termination Fee.

11. MISCELLANEOUS

a. ASSIGNMENT. Owner shall not have the right to assign its rights and obligations hereunder without the express written consent of Agent. Agent may assign this Agreement to its affiliate, successor or assign without the prior written approval of the Owner.
